The Den, Rosé 2026

W.O. Coastal Region

THE STORY OF THIS WINE

The Den is where it starts. In the heart of the African bush, the den is more than a shelter, it is the hub of the pack. These wines are spirited, social, and best enjoyed with good company. They are unpretentious and simply delicious, providing a soft, juicy backdrop to the stories and laughs that happen when you finally retreat to your own den at the end of the day. It is the perfect place to begin if you are new to Painted Wolf Wines

TASTING NOTES

This Pinotage Rosé has delicate pomegranate and cranberry flavours, complemented by subtle hints of rose petals. Perfect to enjoy with friends, family and good food.

AGEING POTENTIAL

This wine is delicious to drink now but will gain complexity and interest with a couple of years of bottle ageing.

THE VINEYARD

Mostly harvested from one large block of unirrigated bush vines in the Voor-Paardeberg and supplemented with fruit from the Swartland.

WINEMAKING

The Pinotage grapes were whole bunch pressed in a similar way one makes the base wine for Cap Classique. The juice was then fermented at low temperature in stainless steel tanks with wild yeast to allow for the best expression of Pinotage fruit and the development of a nice, rounded mouth feel.
